Lexicon to make Capable EHS Systems presentation at Air & Waste Management Association's Annual Conference in New Orleans

Houston, TX – Lexicon Systems, LLC announced today that President & CEO Jill Barson Gilbert will make a presentation on Capable EHS Software Solutions at the Air & Waste Management Association's 99th Annual Conference in New Orleans on 23 June. Gilbert's presentation is part of her ongoing research and application of trusted information technology (IT) methods to environment, health & safety (EHS) management systems. In 2005, she coined the term, "Agile EHS Systems."

"I am pleased to be able to present new concepts to members of the premier environmental professional association, and am excited that the Air & Waste Management Association will hold the first major convention in New Orleans after hurricane Katrina," said Gilbert.
